- 6.4 Extraordinary general meetings for the purpose of transacting specific business requested by the Board of Directors or one of the Company's auditors shall be convened within two weeks of such request. Furthermore, extraordinary general meetings for the purpose of transacting specific business shall be convened no later than two weeks after receipt of a written request submitted from a shareholder or shareholders holding at least five per cent of the share capital. The two week period shall run from the date of the Company's receipt of the shareholder's written request for the extraordinary general meeting.
- 6.5 General meetings shall be convened by the Board of Directors no later than three weeks and no earlier than five weeks prior to the general meeting by publishing a notice on the Company's website and, where requested, by e-mail to shareholders registered in the register of shareholders, see article 16.3.

7 Agenda of annual general meeting; chairman of the meeting and minute book; extraordinary dividends

- 7.1 No later than eight weeks before the date of the annual general meeting, the Board of Directors shall announce the scheduled date of the general meeting as well as the latest date for the submission of requests by shareholders to have specific issues included on the agenda. If a proposal for a specific agenda item is received no later than 6 weeks prior to the annual general meeting, the shareholder is entitled to have the proposed item included on the agenda for the annual general meeting in question.
- 7.2 For a continuous period of three weeks beginning no later than three weeks before the date of any general meeting (including the date of the meeting), the Company shall make the following information available to the shareholders on the Company's website:

1. The notice convening the general meeting.
2. The aggregate number of shares and voting rights at the date of the notice.
3. The documents to be submitted to the general meeting, including, in the case of the annual general meeting, the audited annual report.
4. The agenda of the general meeting and the full text of any proposal to be submitted to the general meeting.
5. Proxy and postal voting forms, if applicable, unless such forms are sent directly to the shareholders.

7.3 The agenda of the annual general meeting must comprise the following items:

1. A report from the Board of Directors on the activities of the Company and its subsidiaries during the past year.
2. A presentation of the audited annual report for approval.
3. A proposal to discharge the Board of Directors and the Executive Board from their obligations.
4. A proposal for the appropriation of the profit or for the treatment of the loss according to the approved annual report.
5. A proposal, if any, from the Board of Directors for authorisation to acquire treasury shares.
6. Any other proposals from the Board of Directors or the shareholders.
7. Election of chairman and deputy chairman of the Board of Directors, and election of other members of the Board of Directors.
8. Determination of the remuneration of the Board of Directors for the financial year in which the general meeting is held.
9. Appointment of auditor.
10. Any other business.

7.4 General meetings are presided over by a chairman who is appointed by the Board of Directors and who ensures that the general meeting is held in a responsible and appropriate manner. The chairman decides all matters concerning the proceedings at the meeting, the voting and the results thereof.

7.5 Minutes of the proceedings at general meetings are recorded in a minute book signed by the chairman of the meeting and the chairman of the Board of Directors.

7.6 The Board of Directors is authorised to resolve to distribute extraordinary dividends. The authorisation of the Board of Directors is not limited (by an amount or otherwise) except as set out in the Danish Companies Act.

7.7 The general meeting has adopted a remuneration policy for the Company's Board of Directors and Executive Board. The remuneration policy is available on the Company's website.

8 Attendance and voting rights at general meetings

8.1 Shareholders may attend general meetings in person or by proxy and may in both cases be accompanied by an adviser. Proxies may exercise voting rights on behalf of shareholders subject to presenting a written and dated instrument of proxy. The Company shall make a written or electronic proxy form available to all shareholders entitled to vote at general meetings.

8.2 Shareholders' rights to attend and vote at general meetings shall be determined on the basis of the shares held by the shareholders on the date of registration. The date of registration shall be one week before the date of the general meeting.

8.3 Shareholders shall notify the Company of their attendance or their proxy's attendance at any general meeting no later than three days before the date of the meeting. This requirement shall also apply to any adviser. The Company shall issue admission cards to shareholders and others entitled to attend the general meeting. The admission cards may be sent from the Company by e-mail.

8.4 Shareholders may vote by post. Postal votes shall reach the Company no later than 12.00 am on the last business day before the general meeting. For purposes of identification of individual shareholders exercising their right to vote by post, postal votes shall specify the shareholder's full name and security account number. If the shareholder is a legal person, the shareholder's Central Business Register (CVR) No. or other similar identification number shall also be clearly set out on the postal vote.

8.5 Within the three months immediately preceding the date of any general meeting, any shareholder may submit questions in writing to the Company's management about matters of significance to the assessment of the annual report and the general position of the Company or of significance to any proposed resolution to be submitted to the general meeting.

- 8.6 Each share amount of a nominal value of DKK 10 carries one vote.
- 8.7 Members of the press are entitled to attend general meetings.
- 9 Resolutions passed at general meetings, majority of votes and quorum
- 9.1 Resolutions at general meetings shall be passed by a simple majority of votes unless otherwise stipulated by legislation or by these Articles of Association.
- 9.2 Resolutions to amend the Articles of Association or to dissolve the Company require that at least 50 % of the share capital is represented at the general meeting and that the resolution is passed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast as well as of the share capital represented at the general meeting unless otherwise stipulated by legislation or by these Articles of Association. If the above-mentioned share capital is not represented at the general meeting in question but at least two-thirds of the votes cast as well as of the share capital represented at the general meeting have adopted the resolution, the Board of Directors shall call a new general meeting within two weeks, at which meeting the proposed resolution may be adopted by two-thirds of both the votes cast and the share capital represented, irrespective of the proportion of share capital represented. However, article 9.2 shall not apply to amendments to the Articles of Association covered by section 106(2) of the Danish Companies Act.
- 9.3 In the event that a new general meeting is called due to a lack of quorum at the first general meeting, proxies to attend the first general meeting are also valid for the second general meeting unless revoked in writing to the extent that the agenda for the second general meeting reflects the agenda of the first general meeting.

10 Board of directors and board observers

- 10.1 The Board of Directors and the Executive Board are responsible for managing the Company's affairs.
- 10.2 The Company's Board of Directors consists of six to eight members elected by the shareholders at a general meeting and any additional number of members elected by the employees according to legislation. Alternates for the employee representatives are elected according to legislation.

All members of the Board of Directors elected by the general meeting shall hold office until the next annual general meeting and are eligible for re-election.

- 10.3 The general meeting shall elect a chairman and a deputy chairman of the Board of Directors who shall hold office until the next annual general meeting. Members of the Executive Board cannot be elected chairman or deputy chairman.
- 10.4 All resolutions of the Board of Directors are passed by a simple majority of votes. In the event of an equality of votes, the chairman, or in his absence, the deputy chairman, has the casting vote.
- 10.5 The Board of Directors forms a quorum when a majority of its members are represented. Board members may be represented by proxy granted to another Board member or, in respect of an employee representative by an alternate, in each case as set out in the Danish Companies Act.
- 10.6 The Board of Directors adopts its own Rules of Procedure.
- 10.7 Minutes of the proceedings of the meetings of the Board of Directors are recorded in a minute book to be signed by all members of the Board of Directors attending the meeting.
- 10.8 The long-form audit report shall be submitted at each board meeting. Each entry in the long-form audit report shall be signed by all members of the Board of Directors.
- 10.9 The Board of Directors represented by its chairman may, as long as the Danish State (represented by the Ministry of Finance) is the Company's majority shareholder, disclose confidential information to the Danish State (represented by the Ministry of Finance), always provided that such disclosure is in compliance with applicable law.
- 10.10 The remuneration of the members of the Board of Directors is determined by the general meeting.

11 Executive board

- 11.1 The Board of Directors appoints an Executive Board consisting of one or more persons, including a chief executive officer, to manage the day-to-day operations of the Company. The terms of employment of the members of the Executive Board are determined by the Board of Directors.

12 Nomination committee

12.1 Each year following the annual general meeting, a Nomination Committee shall be formed consisting of up to six members. Up to four members shall be shareholder representatives, and each of the four largest registered shareholders (subject to the next sentence) of the Company shall be entitled to appoint one member of the Nomination Committee. The Board of Directors may in its discretion require evidence that any large registered shareholder otherwise entitled to appoint one member of the Nomination Committee is the owner of the shares for which it is registered in the share register (and e.g. not a nominee), and to the extent that such evidence is not provided within the timeframe set by the Board of Directors, such shares shall be disregarded for the purposes of identifying the largest shareholders entitled to appoint a member of the Nomination Committee. Shareholdings held by several companies deemed to constitute a group pursuant to the Danish Financial Statements Act are aggregated, and only the parent company of the group is entitled to appoint one member. In addition, the Nomination Committee consists of the chairman of the Company's Board of Directors, who is also the chairman of the Nomination Committee, and the deputy chairman of the Company's Board of Directors. Other members of the Company's Board of Directors and Executive Board and employees are not eligible for election to the Nomination Committee.

12.2 The purpose of the Nomination Committee is to evaluate the composition of the Board of Directors and present to the general meeting recommendations for members to the Board of Directors to be elected by the shareholders in general meeting. The Nomination Committee shall ensure that all candidates for the Board of Directors satisfy the expectations of the capital markets, and that the composition of the Board of Directors complies with the corporate governance recommendations for listed companies. The recommendations of the Nomination Committee do not restrict the right of shareholders to propose candidates to the general meeting.

12.3 Members of the Nomination Committee are subject to a duty of confidentiality according to the same rules as those applying to members of the Company's Board of Directors. The general meeting shall lay down Rules of Procedure for the Nomination Committee concerning its composition and activities. The Company shall ensure that the Rules of Procedure of the Nomination Committee are posted on the Company's website from time to time.

13 Powers to bind the company

13.1 The Company is bound by the joint signatures of (i) the chairman of the Board of Directors and the deputy chairman, (ii) the chairman of the Board of Directors and a member of the Executive Board, (iii) the chairman of the Board of Directors and two other members of the Board of Directors, (iv) the deputy chairman of the Board of Directors and a member of the Executive Board, (v) the deputy chairman of the Board of Directors and two other members of the Board of Directors, or (vi) two members of the Executive Board.

14 Natural gas infrastructure and oil pipe facilities

14.1 Any transfer of title to or imposition of liens on, or provision of any other form of security in the natural gas infrastructure and/or the oil pipe facilities listed in Appendix 1 hereto and owned by the Company or legal persons controlled by the Company may only be made to the Danish State or legal persons controlled by the Danish State.

14.2 Notwithstanding article 14.1, the Board of Directors may resolve to transfer the natural gas infrastructure and/or the oil pipe facilities listed in Appendix 1 to a subsidiary wholly owned by the Company. In the event that such subsidiary ceases to be wholly owned by the Company, the Board of Directors shall ensure that the natural gas infrastructure and/or the oil pipe facilities in question be transferred back to the Company or to another subsidiary wholly owned by the Company.

15 Audit and financial year

15.1 The annual financial statements of the Company shall be audited by one or two state-authorized public accounting firms. Accounting firms are appointed for terms of one year. Retiring accounting firms are eligible for re-appointment.

15.2 The Company's financial year is the calendar year.

16 Electronic communication

16.1 All communication from the Company to each individual shareholder shall take place by electronic means by e-mail or through the website of the Company, www.orsted.com and general notices shall be accessible to the shareholders on the website of the Company, unless otherwise provided for by law. The Company may at any time elect in a specific instance to communicate with the shareholders by way of ordinary mail.

16.2 The Company may request its registered shareholders to provide an electronic address to which notices, etc. may be sent. The shareholders shall be responsible for ensuring that the Company has the correct electronic address.

16.3 Notice of annual and extraordinary general meetings, including the agenda, the complete proposals, annual reports, admission cards, proxy forms, postal vote forms, and subscription lists, may be sent by the Company to the shareholders via e-mail. Except for admission cards to general meetings, information and documents will also be available on the Company's website.

16.4 Information on the requirements for the systems used and the procedures for electronic communication will be available on the Company's website www.orsted.com.

Adopted at the extraordinary general meeting on 30 October 2017

Appendix 1 to the Articles of Association of Ørsted A/S

Natural Gas Infrastructure and Oil Pipe Facilities

The natural gas infrastructure and the oil pipe facilities covered by article 14.1 of the Articles of Association are the following natural gas infrastructure and oil pipe facilities owned by the Company and legal persons controlled by the Company:

- (i) The offshore pipeline from the Tyra platform to Nybro;
- (ii) The offshore pipeline from the Syd Arne platform to Nybro;
- (iii) The offshore pipeline between the Tyra platform and the Harald platform;
- (iv) The gas terminal at Nybro;
- (v) The oil pipeline facility, including booster and valve stations, crude oil terminal and other facilities for transport of crude oil and condensate from the North Sea, comprised by permission dated 30 April 1984, and the related stabilization plant for stabilization of crude oil comprised by permission dated 27 July 2011; and all such assets and rights, including working capital, employees and contracts, as are required for the operation of the natural gas infrastructure and the oil pipe facilities and any obligations related thereto. Agreements on purchase and sale of natural gas or oil are not covered by the term "Natural Gas Infrastructure and Oil Pipe Facilities."

Any extensions to or modifications of the said natural gas infrastructure and/or oil pipe facilities are also natural gas infrastructure and oil pipe facilities covered by article 14 of the Articles of Association.

In the event that the assets, rights and obligations referred to above are spun off and separated into one or more subsidiaries wholly owned by the Company, the transfer of the natural gas infrastructure and/or the oil pipe facilities may, subject to the consent of the Danish State, be made in the form of share transfers. The Danish State will not unreasonably withhold its consent.
